

My Season To Reap

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 "To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace."

To everything there is a season.....we experience seasons in the natural, summer, fall, winter and spring. With each season there is a beauty in each one to be found. My favorite season is summer, the warm days, flowers in full bloom with people on the go visiting loved ones, vacationing. Fall brings the changing of the leaves into vibrant colors painting beautiful landscapes but with it comes the falling away of those leaves. Winter brings the crispness in the air, the deadness of once blossoming plants and trees but the beauty of a new fallen snow. Spring once again erupts with the freshness of new growth all around!

And just as we experience seasons in the natural, we experience seasons in the spiritual. There is a season to be broken, a season to die, a season to heal, a season to weep, a season to laugh and on and on. But the season that God has the open door before us, if we will but walk through, is the season to reap!

Revelations: 3:8 "I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it; for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name."

An open door.....a door means I must move and walk through. I must continue moving forward until I am fully through the door. On the other side of the door is my season to reap. Reap lost loved ones that you have prayed for years for, reap your health, reap your finances, reap your joy, reap that relationship that went awry, whatever the need God is well able to hand it back over to us if we but keep moving!

Galatians 6:9 "And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not."

You might be weary but don't stop. Don't stop praying for that lost loved one, don't stop praying for that relationship, don't stop praying for your finances, don't stop praying, don't stop believing, don't stop speaking it, because you are getting ready to walk into Spring time in the natural and you are getting ready to walk into Spring time in the spiritual. Everything you have prayed for God is getting ready to deliver unto you! It's getting ready to spring forth!

Love & prayers, Stephanie Kingsbury

Prayer: God, I thank you for the seasons of life and the spiritual seasons that I go through. I want to thank you for the broken season where you molded and shaped me and caused me to be formed into your image. I want to thank you for the barren season because your Word says to be thankful in everything, but your Word says there is a season for everything and now I'm walking through the open door that you have set before me. You desire to give me my loved ones, my joy, my finances, my relationships that are broken and on and on and I believe your Word because it is yea and amen! I will speak the Word of God, I will believe the Word of God, I will think the Word of God pulling down every thought that would come my way to try and snatch it away from me. I am walking into my new season boldly as you spring forth everything you have promised to me! I claim it! In Jesus name! Amen!

A few reminders.....

- DVDs of the Sunday services are available free of charge on The Rack in the church foyer.
- Pastor Grimm's Bible Studies on the plan of salvation are available free of charge on The Rack in the church foyer. Feel free to take them to self-study or use to teach others.

Prayer Idea for This Month

As you begin Spring Cleaning of your home, pray as you clean from room-to-room. Pray God's blessings upon your home, your going in and your going out. Take some oil and anoint your doors and pray over the entrances & doorways. Re-invite Jesus to dwell in your home with you and your family. Pray for peace, love, and unity in your home. Pray for health, healing, and miracles in your home. Pray for safety and protection over your home. If you are married, pray for your spouse as you clean in the master bedroom, asking for God's blessings upon your relationship. If you still have children at home, pray for them as you clean in their rooms and sort through their clothes and toys.

Monday, Mar. 22 Chosen Ladies Prayer Meeting Prayer, 6:30 p.m. in the sanctuary
