*Y*EAR OF THE PRIEST:
"Lolek" Drama a Perfect Fit

BEFORE HE WAS POPE

THE PLAY

On June 19th, 2009, Pope Benedict XVI opened the "Year of the Priest" in the Catholic Church which runs through June 19th, 2010. The Vatican's intention for the "Year of the Priest" is to rebuild strong priestly spiritual identities, noting that "priests are important not only for what they do, but also for who they are." The prefect for the Congregation for the Clergy, Cardinal Claudio Hummes, is encouraging local dioceses and parishes to plan events that will "celebrate and show appreciation for priests." Towards this end, we are promoting our "Lolek" drama as a unique and inspirational event for the "Year of the Priest", since this play has a natural focus on the young Karol Wojtyla's calling & vocation to the priesthood, ending with a moving portrayal of his ordination. Available in 60 or 90 min. versions.

*N*EW PLAYS IN 2009:
Now Ready For Travel

The first half of 2009 saw the premiere of two new plays, both written by Jeremy Stanbary, which are now available for travel to your area! The first was our groundbreaking new pro-life drama, "The Vitae Monologues", which has received much national attention since it's premiere at the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul, Minn., this past February. We already have a number of bookings for "Vitae" in the coming year - please contact us to book a performance of this powerful new 'must see' drama. The 2nd new play we premiered was "Paul of Tarsus" in June at the Cathedral of St. Paul in St. Paul as part of their closing festivities for the "Year of Saint Paul." Request a booking packet today!
