DISCIPLINARY TRIBUNAL APPOINTMENT

Former partner, and now consultant to the firm, Richard Bobb, has been appointed as a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants Disciplinary Tribunal.

The Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia has stated it is committed to maintaining its status and recognition as the leading body of professional accountants in Australia. The achievement of that objective depends, in large part, on ensuring that Institute members meet the standards of professional conduct and performance that should be and are expected of leading accounting professionals.
