Bake-Off Bonanza

We have a new and exciting contest for our Rodeo event this year. We are looking for the Sweetest of the Sweets to enter our very first Bake-Off Bonanza! If you've got an award worthy recipe for cake, cookies, pie, or other 'baked' goods, then we want you to bring it to the judges. Enter Today!

PRE-SALE BBQ Dinner Tickets ON SALE NOW

BBQ plates are $10 each and $5 for kids under 10. Your tickets must be purchased by February 23rd.

March 1st is our annual Rodeo Art Show & Auction. The Little Leaders are working on some sure-to-please projects for this major event. From art and live entertainment to food and competition, get ready for some Rodeo fun and excitement.

Each year our program puts on a fantastic Rodeo themed fundraising event. We collect donations from local businesses to be auctioned off in our silent auction. Our classes put together amazing gift baskets with items that are sure to catch your eye. There are items to please every style and every budget.

Rock the Rodeo VIP

If you are looking for a great night out while supporting LLWPBC, then prepare your bid toward our first item up for auction. Starting February 2nd, you can silently bid on our stand out VIP table. This includes the best seats in the house, adorned with a formal Western setting, and reserved just for you and your guests (up to 7 people). Enjoy an unobstructed view of the night's Pre-purchased BBQ dinner plates will be ready when you arrive. Plates are $10 each and $5 each if you're under 10 years old. Prepare to be serenaded by our Little Leaders and other musical guests during the evening. Cast your vote in the Bake-Off Bonanza—People's Choice Award. Better yet, be a contestant and enter your sweetest recipe and win amazing prizes! Be amazed by the abundance of Western Art on display created by our very own Little Leaders. They truly are little artists.

This once a year fundraiser greatly benefits our program by providing means for ministry opportunities, playground needs, and program materials that enhance your child's early education.
