

WORD BREAK

006 – THE GOD KIND OF FAITH CHECKLIST (#6) Have I released my faith?

Dear Child of God,

Welcome to our sixth edition of “WORD BREAK”, which is designed to give you a nugget from God’s Word to strengthen your daily walk.

Question number 5 on our faith check list is, “Have I released my faith?” There are believers who have never released their faith. Somebody once made the statement, “I’ve got all the faith in the world.” You can have all the faith in the world and never receive answers to your prayers. There must come a point in time when you release your faith towards your target.

I could be on the best deep sea fishing trip for Red Snapper that has ever been launched. I could have the highest rated Red Snapper Captain in the last 50 years as a personal guide. I could have the very best rod and reel setup with the very best bait for these prize fish. The captain can have located the very best fishing hole in the entire Gulf of Mexico. He could have me right over that fishing hole with hundreds of Red Snapper showing up on the depth finder. As a matter of fact, I can have all of the above going for me, but unless I cast my line into that school of Red Snapper, I will come away with nothing.

Likewise, a believer can have taken steps 1–4, but unless he or she releases his or her faith in this step #5, failure to receive the target can occur. Faith is released through words.

Luke 11:2a says, “And He said to them, “When you pray, say: ...” (NASB)

Mark 11:24 says, “Therefore I say unto you, What things so ever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.” (KJV)

Set a specific moment in time to release your faith towards your target and never look back!

Thank you for joining me for this edition of “WORD BREAK”. See you this soon!
