The Pastor's Corner

By Allen Grant
Senior Pastor

Wow, I can't believe it is Easter Week. This is the most important week in the life of the church. This week, we remember why we are here and what makes us distinct from other religions. We believe in a risen Savior who has come to offer God's grace to all people everywhere. So this week we will observe "The Living Lord's Supper," a Tenebrae service and finally the joyous resurrection service on Sunday morning. Most people know about the Lord's Supper service and about Easter Sunday but some are confused as to the Latin term Tenebrae. So here is a brief explanation from the UMC.org website:

"The word "tenebrae" comes from the Latin meaning "darkness." The Tenebrae is an ancient Christian Good Friday service that makes use of gradually diminishing light through the extinguishing of candles to symbolize the events of that week from the triumphant Palm Sunday entry through Jesus' burial.

This increasing darkness symbolizes the approaching darkness of Jesus' death and of hopelessness in the world without God. The service concludes in darkness, sometimes with a final candle, the Christ candle, carried out of the sanctuary, symbolizing the death of Jesus. A loud noise may also sound symbolizing the closing of Jesus' tomb. The worshipers then leave in silence to ponder the impact of Christ's death and await the coming Resurrection."

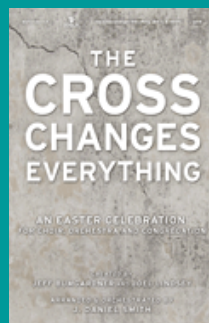

In our service, you will hear the sounds of the nails being driven in. As you come to listen to the story of Jesus' last hours, prepare yourself for the seriousness of this event. Jesus died. Then come Sunday morning to hear the results of what happened after the burial.

I want to thank all those who participated in presenting these services this week — the twelve disciples, Allen Hughes for playing on Thursday night, Larry and Sunmi, the choir and other readers who will present the drama of the crucifixion. I also want to thank Dana Davis and the Worship Team for putting all this together so that together we can worship the risen Lord Jesus Christ. Thanks to Jennifer McKnight, Joe Meyer and the rest of the AV team for helping us see and hear the worship services.

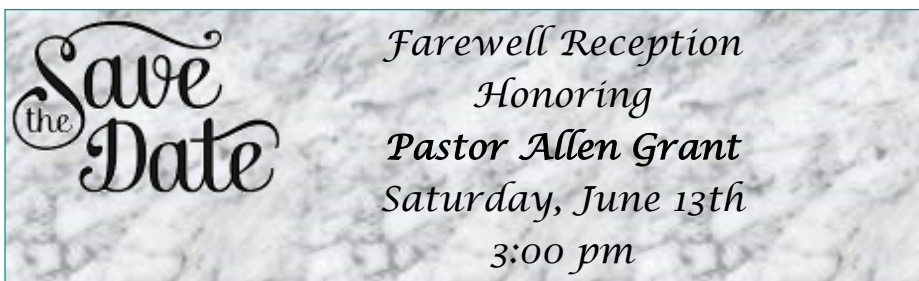

This next Sunday, please bring a friend. Be here early to get a seat. The sermon will be the last in the series on the "I Am" sayings of Jesus. This week, "I Am the Resurrection and the Life." Hallelujah!

-Allen

Music Ministry Matters

by Larry McCord

FUMCRO Minister of Music

“Spring has sprung!!”, the old saying goes and, indeed, signs of the seasonal change are all around us. Old Man Winter held on a bit longer than usual, but warmer weather, blooming plants and newborn creatures testify to spring’s arrival. All of this new life, however, would not be possible without the cold and barrenness of winter.

The passage above follows John’s account of Jesus’ triumphal entry into Jerusalem, which we just celebrated on Palm Sunday. In this case, Jesus is actually preparing the disciples to face his own upcoming death, which they do not yet understand must take place before his resurrection and the coming of the Holy Spirit. They would not fully understand this until all of these things had occurred, and the Holy Spirit reminded them of Jesus’ words and gave them understanding..

Like these disciples, we also face death in our lives. Whether the actual physical death of loved ones, the loss of meaningful relationships, mid-life career changes, health issues or dark nights of the soul, we all have periods of significant loss that are, in a very real sense, a “walk through the valley of the shadow of death”. My own life experience has convinced me that, while God may not orchestrate all of these circumstances, he works through them to conform us to the image of his Son.

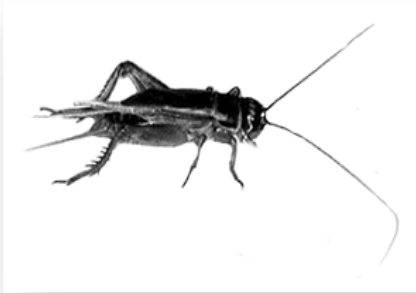

As Jesus said, if the seed does not die, no fruit will result. If we do not allow ourselves to fully experience whatever “death” has come our way, we will not see the fulfillment of God’s purpose in our lives. Just as seasons last a particular period, we must be willing to let each trial of our faith run its course. Ultimately, God is working through all of this to achieve a quite different death...the death to dependence on self or any other “arm of the flesh”. Only then, will we see the fruit of God’s Spirit in our lives. As James said, “Let patience have her perfect work, that you may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.”

Crickets

by Joan Pomeroy
Writing for Enjoyment

Philippians 4:6 NIV:

Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your request to God.

While Jerry and I were living in Los Alamos, New Mexico, I came to dread August. It was a beautiful month. The temperatures of summer began to cool down, yet it was still warm during the day.

In August, the Crickets would begin to make a screeching noise like a small untuned violin. This noise would start at sunset and last until sunrise. Only the first frost would cause them to be silent.

By the middle of August it seemed as if my nerves were burning with the sound of the Crickets. This would cause me to be irritable and grumpy. Sometimes when I managed to get to sleep, they would wake me up; getting back to sleep was hard too do. Exhaustion and sleep deprivation is not good for anyone.

There was absolutely nothing that could be done about these Crickets. They did not bother Jerry, or anyone else I knew.

Then one day I decided there is nothing too small to take to the Lord in prayer. I went into the bedroom, shut the door, sat down on a chair, bowed my head and ask the Good Lord to help me, so that the Crickets would no longer bother me. I told the Good Lord how much trouble the problem of the Crickets were to me, and that I understood God created every living thing, and I was not asking for the Crickets to be taken away, but for me to become less sensitive to the Crickets.

About three days later, I noticed that I was not bothered by the Crickets; I began to sleep all night. I went again into the bedroom, closed the door, sat down on the chair and bowed my head in prayer and gave thanks to the Good Lord.

There is nothing that is too small or too large to take to the Lord in prayer.

Laughter, the Best Medicine

A joyful heart is good medicine, but a crushed spirit dries up the bones.

-Proverbs 17:22

"He's not in there! Oh, wait - he's changed his status to 'risen'"

May 7th is designated on the calendar as the 64th Annual Observance of the National Day of Prayer.

The theme for this year is "Lord, Hear Our Cry," emphasizing the need for individuals, corporately and individually, to place their faith in the unfailing grace of their Creator, who is sovereign over all governments, authorities, and men. The Scripture chosen is I Kings 8:28: "Hear the cry and the prayer that your servant is praying in your presence this day." Because prayer is a very significant and vital part of our Christian spiritual life, the church sanctuary and altar will be open for prayer from 12:00 Noon to 7:00 PM on Thursday, May 1st. A notebook in which to record prayer requests will be available as well as candles to light as intercessory prayers are made for specific persons. If the weather is nice, the Prayer Garden at the entrance of the church may also be used. Everyone is invited to come for a time of quiet reflection and prayer.
