A SPECIAL MESSAGE FOR SUMMER TRAVELERS

Would you find it helpful to have your offerings debited directly from your bank account as you probably do with other obligations? First United Methodist offers electronic giving for those of you who wish to have contributions transferred electronically to the church's account. If you have plans to travel this summer, electronic giving gives you a convenient way to keep up with your intended offerings.

Simply complete and return an electronic giving authorization form to Lori in the church office to get started.

Or go to our website at WWW.FUMCRO.ORG and follow the link at the donation button.

RISK TAKING MISSION PROJECT

We're taking the fight against malaria to the next level in Africa. We can't do it without you. Stand with us and pledge to overcome malaria!

A monthly donation will help provide the resources that will lead to a sustainable victory over this disease. Our Risk Taking Mission Team at FUM-CRO has pledged $18,000 in three years. A pledge of only $5 a month for three years from 100 families will reach our goal. We can do it with your help. This small monthly sacrifice will help do the things that will lead to victory over malaria.

Please turn in your pledge to the church office.

To beat malaria, it's gonna take a global village.
So, get involved! It's easier than you think.

What is Walk to Emmaus?

Walk to Emmaus is a 3 day spiritual retreat designed to help build church leaders. If it has been a while since you have felt the fire in your relationship with Christ, this will rekindle the flame. Be warned, it might make you excited about the prospect of serving in your church and community.

The walk consists of 15 talks over 3 days, designed to build on each other, bringing you closer to Christ along the way. Between the talks, there is time to share with those around you what you are experiencing along the way. There could be laughter, tears, fun, and deep discussions. There is also a promise of food in abundance and responsibilities only to your spiritual growth. No housework, job, children, or laundry for 3 days.

Check out the website: www.ctcemmaus.org or contact any of the members who have experienced the Walk to Emmaus. Lori has a list of Emmaus community members.

ADVENT DEVOTIONAL BOOK

Would you like to have an Advent Devotional Book? Would you like to share your favorite Christmas story or spiritual thought about Christmas? This year, I want to invite our congregation to create a study guide for Advent. I know its summer now but it takes time to organize and print a book for this many people. So if you would like to help, complete the form below and return to the church by September 1. We are not going to sell these but plan to give them away.

Name _____

Scripture for the Day _____

(Please list your favorite verse or short passage above.)

Your passage does not have to be an Advent or Christmas passage. Obviously we would like for you to start with those stories, but the point is to make this your own)

Please type out your story on one page and submit to Lori in the Church Office.

Once this is compiled we will submit the booklet to the Upper Room for possible publication in its devotional guide.

I give my permission for First United Methodist Church of Red Oak and the Upper Room to publish my story for Advent or other usage in the church.

Signed _____ date _____

A Letter of Thanks to My Church Family

On June 10th, as I stood on the stage at the United Methodist New York Annual Conference, ready to kneel and have hands laid upon me as I took the important step of being commissioned as a provisional elder in the United Methodist Church, so many thoughts—particularly of my home church and of others who have supported me along my pilgrim journey—filled my mind. As a child, God moved in my life before I was even aware of it, providing me with a supportive community of faith. My grandfather, as he baptized me in the “old” Methodist Church building, reminded the gathered community that with the grace of God, they had pledged a responsibility to hurt when I hurt, to rejoice when I rejoiced, to give Christian instruction and direction when needed and to live lives so that I might come to know Christ through them. As a church community, you have fulfilled that baptismal covenant; worship and fellowship, laughter and tears: these are the blessed ties that bind. Through you, I saw glimpses of the mystery of God who is Love-in-relationship; through you, I learned to look, touch, taste, smell and listen to the tenor and pitch of the voice of God, a God who is very active in my life, a God who called me into the ministry of the church. I have seen, heard and experienced a God of grace and hospitality, of joy and justice, embodied in the worship and ministry of what will always be my “home church.” As I continue on my path to full ordination in the Methodist church, I ask you to continue to pray for my ministry and the churches that I serve. Who I am and my understanding of God is centered in those who have walked with me on this pilgrimage of faith. Thank you for your love and continued prayers and support; my prayers are also with you as I pray God’s blessings upon the ministries, missions, and church family of the First United Methodist Church of Red Oak.

Jennifer Wilsford Pick

NOTE: In Pastor Allen’s absence, Jennifer will preach on July 31st at FUMC, Red Oak; she looks forward to seeing each of you then.

“Let Freedom Ring”

By Joan Pomeroy Writing for Enjoyment

As Americans we often take for granted the Freedoms that our Fore Fathers and ancestors fought for. Every signature on the Declaration of Independence represents a man who risked everything he owned for freedom. The armed forces continue to fight for these freedoms.

In much the same way we often take for granted the freedom of religion we enjoy in America. Jesus gave his all for our forgiveness and freedom from bondage. Each of his disciples’ gave their all for Jesus.

Freedom defined: in the dictionary; “the state of not being imprisoned or enslaved”. NIV Bible quotes Corinthians 3: 17; “Now the Lord is the Spirit and where the Spirit of the Lord is there is freedom”. NIV Bible quotes Ephesians 3:12; “in him and through faith in him we may approach God with freedom and confidence.”

As Christians we know it is one of our freedoms to approach The Lord God Almighty, his only son Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit in prayer. I firmly believe nothing is too small to take to God in prayer. We have the freedom to change churches with out disgrace. We have the freedom to speak freely about our faith. These are only some of our Christian freedoms.

In America we have the freedom to be Christians, while in Russia this belief was banned for years. In China a person can be thrown in jail for carrying a Bible for it is against the law to spread the word. Have you ever wondered why in Saudi Arabia most of the people are Muslim?

What can we as Christians do to protect our religion which gives us so many freedoms? I believe one of the strongest ways is never to disclaim that we are Christians, regardless of the circumstance that arises which offers us the opportunity to slide by or not acknowledge our religion. We can read and remember the Hymn “Onward Christian Soldiers” written by: Brain-Gould in 1865 and the music was written by: Author S Sullivan in 1871.

This 4th of July may we not only celebrate the birth of our Nation, but also the freedom of our Christian religion.

THE BACK PAGE BY ALLEN GRANT

Hey everyone!

We have kicked off the summer in a mighty way. Annual Conference and then an Amazing Mission Trip to DeQuincy, Louisiana. Thank you for making it possible for 19 of our congregation to experience serving Christ with the folks in that town. We were treated royally by the congregation and indeed the entire town.

This summer we will have an opportunity to return the favor for others. A CTCYM mission team of Junior High Students and adults will be coming to Red Oak to do the same kind of work, July 17-22.

They will be staying at the Red Oak Middle School right next to our church building. We are co-sponsoring this trip with the Ovilla Church and their Youth Minister, Rev. John Nadar will be the Center Director.

So far we are committed to serving them breakfast in our church building on Friday morning. The Ovilla Church is going to provide one evening meal for the teams. Here is how you can help. Missionaries in Red Oak will need:

- Lots of Ice, so we need a source for ice for 75 people daily
- Towels washed and dried daily. (this is a terrific help)
- A place for swimming at least one night. (their Program Director will be planning activities and swimming is usually one that will cool them off)
- Jobs to do. CTCYM works with the elderly and the disabled to repair their homes. Jobs that are possible are porch and ramp repair and rebuild. Scraping and painting. Screen repair. We do not put students on roofs for repair.

A form will be available in the church office for you to use. Homes must be owned by the client.

Want to help? Call me and let's talk. Allen
