

December 27, 2009

The Infant King

Matthew 2:1-12

In Matthew's account of Christmas, Jesus is given His name by an angel, and He is also called "Immanuel – God with us." Today we learn about a third title given Him – King!

Two Contrasting Personalities in the Story:

1. King Herod – known as _____ the _____.
2. The Magi – traditionally known as _____ _____.

Three insights from our story today:

1. We see God's _____ at _____.
2. We see the _____ nature of the _____.
3. We see the _____ nature of _____.

A reading guide to prepare for next week's message is available on the back side of the sermon notes.