Sunday, February 5 ~ 5:30 P.M.
Tindall Christian Activity
Center

Come watch the Super Bowl with East Hill and Fellowship of the Hills on Sunday evening, February 5, at 5:30 P.M. Please invite your friends and bring a crock pot of chili/soup, plates of sandwiches, crackers/chips, and desserts to share with the crowd. There is no charge for the meal or the game but we will be receiving donations to help with our Honduras Mission Trip in June.

Missio Dei

In John 20:21, Jesus said, "As the Father sent Me, so I am sending you." Please join us for worship this month as we continue to explore what it means to join God on mission.

Dear East Hill Family,

Thank you so much for all your prayers, thoughts, cards, and good will during Buzz's surgery and rehabilitation in December and January. He is home now and doing well.

It is so wonderful to know our friends are there for us.

*In Christ's Love,
Lou Wright*

Hi Everyone,

I miss Tallahassee, my home and all of you. I believe I will be happy here with all of my family close by. Everyone is so good to me. I couldn't be anything but content here, as anywhere, since my Art is gone.

*I Love You All,
Kitty Forehand*

Congratulations !

To Will & Amy Stewart on the birth of their son, Chason Daniel, born January 21, 2012. The proud grandparents are Mark & Lisa Stewart. Great-grandparents are Virginia & Buddy Stewart and Warren & Matrid Langston.

Dear Friends,

Thank you for the Shoeboxes you packed for Operation Christmas Child. Sixty-nine children will be blessed by your kindness and generosity. Thank you for being a blessing this Christmas!

NEWS FROM THE COVE...

LOVESICK: A Revolution Bible Study Series

In this new series, we will be talking about dating. But more importantly we will be talking about balance. In a world where finding a boyfriend or girlfriend sometimes becomes all-consuming, we want to remind students that dating is only one of many areas in their lives. When romantic relationships become an obsession, balance goes out the window. We miss out on opportunities and experiences we might otherwise have had. And sometimes we even forget who we are. There's got to be a healthier way to do this. There's got to be another way than being so lovesick.

Week One (February 1)

There is nothing quite like the experience of falling in love. Nothing. In fact, some people are willing to do just about anything for the feeling of being in love, for the knowledge that someone values them, finds them significant and worthwhile. This week we will be discussing both the fun and wonderful parts of dating and also the danger of sacrificing who they are and who they are designed to be for the sake of romance.

Week Two (February 8)

"Don't put all of your eggs in one basket!" We've all heard the phrase before. Some of us have probably even used it a time or two. But when it comes to dating, it can be pretty hard to actually put into practice. We live in a culture where marketing, events and entertainment are driven by romantic relationships, where people are profiled based on relationship status, and where love and romance are a part of our daily conversations. For many students it just seems normal, almost expected to devote all of their time, energy and affection to acquiring or maintaining a dating relationship. This week we'll be talking about how to balance dating with all the other areas of life.

Week Three (February 15)

High school reunions can be either something we eagerly look forward to, or anxiously dread. The reasons for our excitement or our hesitation are usually the same—the people. We're concerned about who we will encounter from our past and the lasting impression they had on us—for better or for worse—and the lasting impression we had on them. And no relationship has the ability to leave an impression like a dating relationship. This week we will be exploring dating from the perspective of the one they date. We want to challenge students to think about their own responsibility to always consider what they can do in the future to make someone's story better.

Please pray for our students as we call them to be countercultural not just in their romantic relationships, but in every area of their lives.

LOVESICK

Lent is the official name given to the period of forty days (not including Sundays) that immediately precedes our celebration of the resurrection of Jesus Christ on Easter Sunday. For many Christians, Lent is part of the liturgical year, a special time of spiritual reflection and devotion often characterized by fasting, acts of charity and words of witness.

As Baptists, we don't always observe Lent like some of our other brothers and sisters in Christ. But whether or not we follow the seasons of the traditional church year, every believer would benefit from spending time reflecting upon Christ's earthly ministry and his sacrificial death on the cross. Every Christian would benefit from contemplating the love and grace of our Lord. All of us would benefit from thinking about what it means to be a true follower of Christ. Each of us would be blessed by translating those thoughts into meaningful acts of witness and ministry.

To help us get started on our Lenten journey, our Sanctuary Choir will present Touched by the Christ during our 11:00 A.M. service on Sunday, February 26.

Have You Pledged for 2012?

So far this year, 39 of our members have pledged nearly $200,000 towards our 2012 Budget. This is $37,000 below our pledges for last year and represents 35% of our budget. If you have not already done so, please convey your commitment to the Lord and to East Hill Baptist Church by completing a Commitment Card.

Commitment Cards were included in the December newsletter and the January 8 bulletin. Commitment Cards are also available in the church office and in various places around the church.

Honduras Mission Project June 26-July 3

We are planning a mission trip to Yamaranguila, Honduras this summer. Several of our students along with a number of adults attended an informational meeting about the project last month. If you are seriously interested in going on the trip but were unable to attend the meeting, we need to know of your interest as soon as possible as some of the project details will be determined by the makeup of the mission team.

The Honduras Mission Project is a huge and exciting endeavor for our church. As such, it will require the support of our entire congregation. Please pray for our church, our leaders and those who will be going on the trip. Look for the many ways that you will be able to participate and contribute in the coming months.

We have had a great start to 2012 in the Weekday Children's Ministries and look forward to what God is going to do in the programs this year. We continue to have space for new students in our Before and Afterschool programs, so spread the word to family or friends in need of childcare. For a list of the schools we service you can check our website.

In Preschool news, registration for the 2012-2013 school year is fast approaching! Registration for in-house families will begin on Tuesday, February 14, and registration will be open to the public on Monday, February 20. For any questions please contact the preschool at 224-4834.
