Re: Reply to April 14, 2020 Email regarding public hearings

Dear Mr. Compitello:

The decision whether to hold a public hearing on a pending application is solely that of the chairperson of the respective board. As the Town's Supervisor, I may not interfere with, or influence the deliberations of the Planning Board, or Zoning Board of Appeals.

The Town's Attorney, our Code Enforcement Officer, County Health Director, County Planning, and County Administration, have all been doing a great job keeping our boards and town staff informed of the recent Executive Orders being issued from the Governor's Office regarding public meetings and public hearings during this pandemic.

Sincerely,

Peter Ingalsbe
Town Supervisor
