WILSON'S CREEK NATIONAL BATTLEFIELD
154th ANNIVERSARY PROGRAM

Wilson's Creek National Battlefield will observe the 154th Anniversary of the Battle of Wilson's Creek during the three-day period of Saturday, August 8 through Monday, August 10, 2015.

On Saturday, August 8, Civil War drills and historic weapons firing demonstrations will take place at tour road stop 5. Approximately 50 volunteers will represent both the Union and Southern troops that fought in the battle. Demonstration times are on the hour from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. On Sunday, August 9, Civil War drills and historic weapons firing demonstrations will continue. Demonstration times are on the hour from 12 p.m. to 3 p.m.

Monday, August 10, marks the 154th anniversary of the Battle of Wilson's Creek, also known to the Confederates as "Oak Hills". The anniversary program will begin at 10 a.m. in front of the visitor center. The featured speaker is Brigadier General Donald Scott, USA, Retired. Entrance fees will be waived on August 10.

"Come and enjoy this special presentation by Retired Army General Don Scott," says Superintendent Hillmer. Refreshments will be served, courtesy of the Wilson's Creek NB Foundation, and entrance fees for August 10 will be waived.

In addition, the historic Ray House will be open for tours from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily. The new visitor center exhibits are also available for viewing.

For additional information, please call the park visitor center at 417-732-2662, extension 227 or visit the battlefield's website at www.nps.gov/wicr.

Wilson's Creek National Battlefield preserves and commemorates the first major battle of the Civil War in the West. Administered by the National Park Service, the 1,920-acre battlefield is located 10 miles southwest of Springfield, Missouri at the intersection of ZZ Highway and Farm Road 182. For additional information, call 417-732-2662.
