

April 12, 2016

In the early 1970's I began to buy Civil War books to educate myself on this fascinating period in our American History. As you can see by the pages attached, I have assembled a fairly large collection. Due to my wife's deteriorating health, it's time that I start selling, as if we would have to move, I would not have room to take most of these books with me. I also have some that I may be selling after my son has a chance to look through my complete collection, including Western and weapons books, firearms and swords.

Condition has always been primary with me! Most of the books that I have purchased including dust jackets are in excellent condition. Furthermore when I bring a book home, I wrap it in a Brodart Archival, acid free, clear polyester Book Jacket Cover. The few that I have bought that, due to their age have worn dust jackets, are wrapped to enhance their looks. If you have an interest in any, feel free to either question me via email or phone to verify availability and condition ahead of shipping. Based upon what you buy, I can give you the amount to add for shipping. I will hold for up to 7 days while waiting for your check to arrive before packing and shipping.

I have taken the time to go through my books marked NFS "not for sale". If you see something marked NFS that you feel strongly about, feel free to check with me to see if I would reconsider, as some of these so marked will eventually be sold.

The first two pages are of books that are author signed or presentation signed. Being a member of the Civil War Round Table of Kansas City since 1979 and a two-time President, has afforded me the opportunity to meet and spend time with many fine authors over the years.

If you have an interest in any, email or call. It is easiest to reach me via my cell 913.488.9350 between 9:00am and 9:00pm daily. My email is db1861@kc.rr.com.

Kind regards,

P.S. Please note the books crossed through in red ink have been "sold" to members of our Civil War Round Table as a courtesy to my longtime friends.
