CALL FOR PARTICIPANTS

RESEARCH PROJECT FOR THE INQUIRY INTO ACCESS TO AND INTERACTION WITH THE JUSTICE SYSTEM BY PEOPLE WITH AN INTELLECTUAL DISABILITY AND THEIR FAMILIES AND CARERS

JacksonRyan Partners want to hear from people with an intellectual disability, or their families and carers, who have had experience with the justice system.

We want to hear about your experience in terms of how the laws in Victoria are applied.

This might be an experience arising from, for example, contact with disability services, or guardianship and administration, education, transport, VCAT, the Ombudsman, through to experience dealing with the police, the operation of the courts, youth justice or the prison system.

Your de-identified response would be part of JacksonRyan's submission to the Inquiry currently being undertaken by the Victorian Parliament Law Reform Committee into access to and interaction with the justice system by people with an intellectual disability and their families and carers.

Full details about the inquiry can be found at <http://www.parliament.vic.gov.au/lawreform/article/1458>

If you would like to participate in a short telephone interview, please phone Margaret Ryan on (03) 9077 4152 or Max Jackson on 0413 040 654 before 17 August 2011.
