“Blood Brothers is filled with fantastic writing, an utterly enthralling plot line and some of the best written characters I have read.” Duncan Whitehead, author of the top selling mystery The Gordonston Ladies Dog Walking Club

My birthday was August 7th and one of my dearest friends, Thom Blincoe, who is an international marketing manager for Godiva, flew up from Ft. Lauderdale to help me celebrate. This is a picture of us boating on the Ohio River.

I've been working hard on the outline and research for my next mystery which takes place in colonial South Carolina.

Happy Summer. Jody
