Festival Features

There are 70 concerts over the 3 days of the festival. There are a number of special events throughout the festival.

WELCOME TO COUNTRY & OFFICIAL OPENING

The festival is honoured, to be welcomed by Wadi Wadi elder Joyce Donovan from Gerringong. Joyce was the 2008 Australian of the year NSW local hero and has been honoured by her own Wadi Wadi elders for her outstanding indigenous social justice and human rights work. The Mayor of Kiama, Brian Petschler will then officially open the third Folk by the Sea. FRI 7pm Norfolk

VOX FM CONCERT

People from all around the world will be able to tune into Folk by the Sea. Courtesy of local Community Station VOX FM and modern technology, we will be recording the concert and then replaying it to the world at 2pm via FM frequency 106.9 and <http://myradiostream.com/voxfm>
SAT 10am-Midday Norfolk

AUSTRALIAN SONGS

Australia has a rich culture despite what the 'cultural cringers' will tell you. In these concerts exponents and presenters of that culture will be sharing their experiences in song and music. Long time Australian traditional singer Garry Tooth will lead a team of traditionalists in all the old favourite Australian songs
SAT 11.30am Kendall Morning Trad
SAT 6.30pm Kendall Twilight Trad

BLACKBOARD FOLK

Russ Churcher will host a blackboard concert for anyone (with a festival pass) to perform! SAT 2.15-4.15pm Kendall

YOU'VE GOT TO BE JOKING

Some of our more serious performers go funny. If you like a bit of a giggle come along and listen to a bit of 'What Makes The World Go Round'. That's laughter not love - that's far too serious. SAT 2.30 Saddleback

PARODY CONCERT

A selection of festival artists will attempt an imitation of the style of a particular writer, artist, or genre with deliberate exaggeration for comic effect. SAT 5.15pm Saddleback

LIFT OUT Program

Spoken words by the Sea

MORNING POETS

Everyone is a closet poet and here is a chance to share your favourite or original poems with like minded people. 'Avago'. SAT 10am Kendall

KEMBLA FLAME AWARDS

Illawarra Breakfast Poets and the Illawarra Folk Club present the winners of 'The Kemplala Flame' and 'The Kemplala Star' written bush poetry competition. Both awards will receive cash, a distinctive trophy and certificate. Local champion bush poet Zondrae King will be on hand for the presentations. SAT 1pm Kendall

SINGING POETS

Nobody believes poets can sing. We have found some who can and we are not telling you who they are in case that get snavelled by the singer songwriters. But pop along and hear some great poets burst into song. SAT 5pm Kendall

THE CURSE OF VERSE

Bring a verse - yours or someone else's and read or recite it. SAT 7.45pm Kendall

A SPOT OF SPINNING

Everyone has a yarn or a joke. Here is your turn to share it with others. Bring it along but keep it reasonably short - no 'shaggy dogs'. SAT 9.15pm Verandah

Dancing by the Sea

Here some bush dancing to keep you warm and energised. Music by No Such Thing and Stuart Leslie. The venue is the Uniting Church Hall about 150 metres from the showground.
