

CAPITAL CITY CHURCH OF GOD

Title

Senior Minister

Ministry Description Senior Pastor

Purpose

The primary job of the senior pastor is to lead/administrator the core ministries of the congregation: worship, teaching, evangelism, fellowship, pastoral care, community service, administration and leadership. A person that understands that the pastor is much more than a preacher that fills the pulpit on Sundays. A minister who understands the dynamics of congregational life.

Responsible to

Board of Elders

Description of duties

- Follow the biblical leadership qualities of an elder/overseer found in 1 Timothy 3:1-7.
- Prepare and preach biblical sermons
- Uphold the doctrines of the Church of God (Anderson) and honor their expressions in the tradition of Capital City Church of God
- Live the word of God and hold the congregation to a moral standard.
- Lead the charge for prayer in our ministries.
- Oversight of Wednesday midweek services
- Conflict Resolution
- Meet regularly with staff to communicate, discuss, and listen to plans for ministry.
- Meet regularly with the Elders to provide/receive encouragement, assistance and direction.
- Pastoral Care duties such as visitation, counseling, baptismal, weddings and funerals.
- Represent Capital City Church of God at Assembly meetings.
- Other tasks to assist Elders or Staff that might arise.

Time requirements

This position is considered full time (bi-vocational).

Qualifications, skills, and gifts

- A vibrant and growing personal and committed relationship with Jesus.
- Supportive of the vision and direction of Capital City Church of God
- Committed to the beliefs of the Church of God (Anderson)
- Evidence of a Christlike attitude in words and actions.
- Honesty, openness, acceptance, trustworthiness, truthfulness, compassionate motivator
- A servant leader
- Excellent communication skills.
- Able to work with a wide variety of “constituents”: Elders, Staff, Worship Team, Young People, Seniors, etc...
- One or more of the gifts of administration, discernment, encouragement, knowledge, leadership, mercy, shepherding, teaching, and/or wisdom.
- Licensed and credentialed in Church of God.
- Live in Springfield, IL or relocate prior to starting to serve as the senior pastor.