25TH REDROCK CREATIVE WRITING SEMINAR

2022

Community Building
245 N 200 W
Located South of Senior Center

SATURDAY MARCH 5TH

9:00 AM TO 1:30 PM

LOLA HASKINS
9:00 – 10:15
"MASKING UP"
Lola Haskins is a huge fan of Utah and Utah poets. Her work has appeared in The Atlantic, London Review of Books, Georgia Review, and elsewhere. Among her awards are the Iowa Poetry Prize, two Florida book prizes, two NEAs, and the Emily Dickinson Award from the PSA. She teaches for Rainier Writer's Workshop, a low-residency MFA based in Tacoma, WA. Her most recent book (of fifteen) is Asylum (2018), which was featured in the New York Times.

TIM KELLER
10:30 – 11:45
"FLASH – MATTERS!"
Tim Keller is one for whom the only thing better than reading a good story is telling one, so he started the Great American Novel. The work changed his life. He now is an award-winning author whose short prose and essays have appeared in numerous journals, anthologies, and collections, including the Provo Orem Word, where he won the reader's choice award, Metamorphosis, Helicon West Anthology: a ten-year celebration of authors, the anthology Mirrored Realities, Words to Paint With, and most recently, Tis the Season, Joyride, and Soul, Sand & Sky. He even works on his novel from time to time.

DENIS FEEHAN
12:00 – 1:15
"IT'S ALL ABOUT THE HOOK"
Denis Feehan has been writing lyrics for more than 40 years, landing several songs on albums of bands in Los Angeles, CA. These days he also plays keyboard and guitar with his own classic band Time Machine. An actor and director, Denis has performed in Los Angeles and Mesquite, NV, theaters. He is current president of Heritage Writers Guild in St. George, UT, and has published 13 poems and 2 short stories.

Please Note: Masks are required for Lola's presentation but optional for the other presentations. Hand sanitizer will be provided.

In conjunction with the Redrock Seminar, come early and experience Poetry in the Park, March 4th, a day of poetry writing with Lola Haskins in Zion National Park. For registration and further information, visit poetry-in-the-park.com - Sponsored by Zion National Park Forever Project

Don't miss the Chaparral Poetry contest awards Friday March 4. 7pm students & 8pm adults.

Sponsored By RED ROCK Writers

Utah Division of Arts & Museums

ST. GEORGE ARTS COMMISSION

WASHINGTON COUNTY Recreation, Arts & Parks

UTAH STATE POETRY SOCIETY FOUNDED 1950

VISIT OUR WEBSITE AT
redrockwriters.org