

CEDAR BAYOU PARKS, LLC

Nicholas E. Ford - Manager/ CEO

Education - Coe College, Cedar Rapids, IA – May 2015

B.A. in Business Administration

Honors: Sigma Beta Delta Honors Society, Numerous Military Awards, Held one of highest security clearances (Q).

Relevant Jobs & Skills –

2015-present Business Founder, CR Fun Ventures LLC
2014-2015 C#/Web Developer, Perfect Game
2011-2015 Student at Coe College
2008-2011 Corrective Action Manager/Operations, Florida Power and Light
2007-2008 Carrier Testing Program Manager, Gryphon Inc.
2003-2007 Project Officer/Technical Specialist, US Navy/Dept. of Energy
1999-2003 Department Head/Technical manager, US Navy
1986-1999 Enlisted, US Navy

Manager/Oversight – Nuclear Power/Ship Operations

Coordinated a dynamic organization of a United States Aircraft Carrier at sea to perform all day to day operations, casualty situations, and complex evolutions while maintaining the utmost safety for the approximately 6000 members on board.

Managed a work force of 150 individuals and 7 supervisors to perform tasks, troubleshoot equipment failures, and ensure vital missions were completed.

Directed a department of 30 highly trained technicians to maintain the safety of two nuclear reactors during a major overhaul and their subsequent testing and operations.

Provided oversight to a naval shipyard performing repairs on nuclear powered submarines ensuring all safety and technical standards are upheld during maintenance, system installation, and testing.

Designed and implemented audits of key areas of a nuclear repair.

Assisted in a full scale audit of all aspects of operation of a naval shipyard.

Maintenance Manager – Shipyard Contracting

Managed pre-overhaul testing for nuclear powered aircraft carriers, coordinating contractors from multiple organizations to accomplish project goals.

Coordinated action plans and corrective actions for problems, ran corrective action program for a commercial nuclear power plant.

C#/Web Developer

Work in small group setting for IT department to oversee and manage a large business website including a very robust and large database interface.

