"For I have not shunned to declare to you the whole counsel of God". Acts 20:27

In context, Paul is speaking to the Ephesian elders and declares that he did not hold back but declared the whole counsel of God to them. Simply put, Paul did not pick and choose what he would preach but preached the entire counsel of God to people. As a pastor called by God, I must do the same. I cannot shy away from topics that some consider controversial even though the Bible is not silent on them for I am accountable to God.

As such, there is great value of preaching through the books of the Bible. By doing so, the whole counsel of God's word is declared to you. Not one book of the Bible or topic can be skipped or overlooked when someone preaches through the Bible.

As a church family we recently finished the book of Acts in a sermon series so we will now start a new sermon series in the Book of Romans in November. The Book of Romans is all about the gospel—what the gospel is and how it is applied to our life. It will be a very fruitful study and enrich your understanding of the gospel and walk with Christ.

Finally, remember that early voting starts soon in KY and Election Day is November 5th. Go vote!

All for God's Glory - Pastor Chad
