“Now therefore, here is the king whom you have chosen and whom you have desired.....”
1 Samuel 12:13

This verse comes from the coronation of King Saul and is followed by a promise and a warning. Samuel tells the people that if they and the king over them follow and obey the Lord, it will be well with them. However, if the people and the king do not obey and follow the Lord, the hand of the Lord will be against them. So from here and other places in Scripture, we clearly see that having people over us that have a fear of God is important.

For those of you who have known me as your pastor for a long time, you know I would never tell you who to vote for. My instructions to you are always to pray and look at each candidates policies. As followers of Jesus, we should vote and vote for candidates whose policies are more in line with Scripture. There will never be a perfect candidate to vote for so we must research each candidates policies and past records to best discern who more closely aligns with Scripture. Let Scripture dictate your thinking about the issues for they are not silent on any of the issues we are dealing with today. Sit down with your Bible and each candidates policies, pray, and ask God for discernment. Then go vote! Not voting should not be an option.

Election Day is November 5th.
