

David W. Meier, Business Broker

407.388.8268

David W. Meier is a Broker Associate with Premier Business Group. Having started, grown and subsequently sold numerous businesses of his own, David is uniquely qualified to advise individuals who are considering buying or selling their businesses.

David has held several corporate positions throughout the years, including one as Senior Financial Manager for Walt Disney World. He specialized in Epcot Center merchandise and food location development as part of start-up process.

David spent the decade of the 90's as a National Business Lecturer, traveling throughout the country teaching current and would-be business owners how to maximize the value of their businesses and business ideas.

David founded and operated for 30 years, his own accounting practice. Specializing with small business clients in accounting, taxation and consulting.

David received a BA in Economics, University of Michigan and an MBA in Finance, Loyola of Baltimore.