The Pulpit and Pen

The Times, They Are A-Changin'

Over the past few years the Southern Baptist Convention (SBC) has changed significantly. This year has certainly been no different, and the likelihood that more changes are coming is strong.

Normally, the SBC has its annual meeting in June of every year. However, this year the annual meeting was cancelled for the first time since 1945. The United States government banned public meetings larger than fifty people in 1945 necessitating the cancellation of that year's meeting. The messengers of the 1946 annual meeting then adopted a protocol to follow for any future cancellations.

Under the guidelines established by the 1946 protocol, all officers of the SBC continue to serve for an additional year. The next scheduled meeting of the SBC is in Nashville, Tennessee, in 2021.

The cancellation of this year's annual meeting was expected, given the demands of the government to shut down all large meetings. It was also the prudent thing to do since several thousand individuals would have been in close quarters at the Orlando convention center for two to three days, and there would have been virtually no feasible method by which to screen those who might arrive at the convention site with a coronavirus infection.

Why the SBC leadership did not postpone the convention until later in the summer is unknown. Certainly, it would have been a logistical nightmare to reschedule all the various meetings, but given that the state of Florida and Orange County have suffered serious financial setbacks as a result of the coronavirus closures, I have no doubt that the convention center management would have been quite agreeable to accommodate moving the SBC's annual meeting to a later date. I can only assume that the SBC leadership simply concluded that the logistics of rescheduling simply was not worth the effort.

However, the more serious ramifications of cancelling the annual meeting involves the continuation of the current slate of Convention officers for another year, especially the SBC president, J. D. Greear, pastor of the Summit Church in Durham, North Carolina. Greear is the first of the next generation known as Generation X to assume the presidency of the SBC. As a younger pastor, Greear has set forth on an agenda of change for the SBC.

His most controversial position to date is his alignment with the Black Lives Matter (BLM) movement. While he has denied being a part of the official BLM organization, he has expressed sympathy for the movement and stated that the SBC should support it.

In addition, the SBC president has used the same ceremonial gavel during the annual meetings since 1872. The John Broadus Gavel was named for the SBC leader who brought the gavel from Jerusalem and donated it to the Convention for use in its annual meetings. John Broadus was one of the founding professors of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky.

Greear has made the decision to retire the Broadus Gavel in order to erase what Greear thinks is an affront to Southern Baptists of today. Broadus was a supporter of the Confederacy and erasing his legacy within the SBC is part of the overall movement by some liberals to eliminate the history of the United States. Erasing one's history does not correct the errors of the past; it dooms us to repeat them.

When asked about his political or theological beliefs, Greear has consistently refused to answer. However, previous statements made by him would indicate that he is politically liberal and theologically a Calvinist. Neither of these positions bodes well for the future of the SBC. As with all things, the SBC is ultimately in God's hands, but as the saying goes, "Times, they are a-changin'."

Hardeetown Student Ministries

Pray for the students! That's the best help, advice, and encouragement I can give right now. With this pandemic going on, school is not going to look or be the same. Pray for the teachers and administrators as they try to educate the students and keep everyone safe. No one is certain what this is going to look like in a month. As a former football coach, I am trying to comprehend blocking someone from six feet away. Not sure what that looks like! I know football practice has already started. Pray for the students as they practice. Also, cheerleading camp is coming up; pray they stay safe. With all the negativity on TV and Internet, just pray. Pray for the ones in labs that are searching for the vaccine so this will end soon. JUST PRAY! Also, the first Wednesday night of every month will be a prayer time with Earl Cairns. Then we will pick up with the Gospel Journey Maui Study.

Marriage Night Simulcast Event: Healthy marriages don't happen by accident. They require work and dedication, but with the busyness of life and the pressures of culture, it's easy to lose focus. What is marriage supposed to look like when those initial bursts of excitement give way to everyday troubles and routines? On SEPTEMBER 12, 2020, join thousands of people from around the world for a one-night simulcast event. Laugh and learn with your spouse as you hear from marriage experts, and discover how to honor God in your marriage. This event will take place in the fellowship hall 6:00-10:30 p.m. Meal and childcare provided. Cost is $15 per person. Go to www.marriagenight.org to register.

Child Evangelism Fellowship training will take place Saturday, August 22, 8:30-5:00 in the fellowship hall. Anyone interested in helping children come to know Christ in the public school should attend this training.

Youth Girls Overnight Bible Study will take place Friday, August 7, 6 p.m. to 8 a.m. at Kendra's house. Bring a friend.

ALL students MUST have a signed and notarized permission form. Medical release forms are good for one year.

Champions for Christ Kids

Hey friends! It is hard to believe just how fast 2020 is flying by. What a wild time to be alive. Recently the kids and I have been focusing on some of the promises God's word teaches us. For instance, this past Sunday we focused on how God can help us to be strong in the midst of unknown times. What a comfort it is that during this unknown time we can cling to God for strength! It has been a blessing to experience these promises with the kids on Wednesday nights and Sunday mornings! There are a lot of exciting things we have been looking forward to! July 6-8 is Hello Summer Mini Camp from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., and then the following week is Vacation Bible School from 5:30-8:30! These are both great opportunities that we as a church have to love on kids for the glory of God! Please contact me if you have any questions or would like more information.

HBC Women's Ministries

I have been truly amazed as people stepped up to do various things during the past few months. In spite of each of us having our own situations to deal with because of COVID-19, we have still joined together to minister both here and abroad to glorify our Lord! Thank you all for your support as we minister in the name of Jesus. In the meantime, if any of you need a place to get "plugged in" to ministry please give me a call!

WE NEED YOUR HELP WITH VBS! Ladies (and men!), we are in need of multiple volunteers for VBS. Our dates are July 13-17. Our theme is Mystery Island. Construction and painting of props has begun. If you wish to teach, help with construction, volunteer as a backup teacher, or volunteer in the kitchen, please contact Casey at (352) 614-2953. The sign-up sheets are in the church foyer.

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD: The collection of items for our OCC boxes is in full swing. So far individuals have provided all the tooth brushes, soap, and wash clothes needed. Items may be donated anytime; either drop off in the box in the foyer or drop at the church during office hours. Our July collection item is school composition books. If you want to help, please contact Connie or Mary Gore, and we will get you hooked up with a task.

BIBLE STUDIES: We currently have two groups participating in the "Discerning the Voice of God" Bible study. Stay tuned for information on our next study. We will announce our fall Bible study soon.

OPERATION COVER! We have about wrapped up our production of masks for the time being. If there is another wave or our sweet nurses tell us there is a need at their facilities, we will gear up as needed. As of this writing, over 3,000 masks have been sent out from our church. I want to thank each and every person who helped, be it through sewing, ironing, distributing, financially assisting, or through your prayer support.

OUR INTERNATIONAL MISSIONARY: Don't forget to send our adopted missionary a card this month. Her address is: Irwin, Abbey

Ephesians 2:8-9

For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, not of works, lest anyone should boast.

(NKJV)
