BUILDING UPDATE: Progress with the new building is moving forward. Slowly but surely. The exterior finish of the building has been completed. The concrete pour for the flooring is being scheduled. The exact date is yet to be decided. There is some preliminary work from some of the other subs that needs to be done first. That work is getting wrapped up. We expect to know soon a date when the flooring will be poured. Once that is done, we can begin to focus on work for the interior. Thank you for your contributions!

THANK YOU so much for the great blessing to our family and for the support you have shown us, both while we lived near and now that we are far. The Baxters, Daniel & Elizabeth, Bukk, Niah, Hez, Jael
