FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Becker LLC Partner David Sprong and CDO Michael Bartels Present at the Massachusetts Staffing Association’s Annual Conference

Livingston, N.J., April 2018 – The Becker LLC team of Partner David Sprong and Michael Bartels, CDO proudly participated in the session entitled “The #MeToo Movement in Your Workplace” during the Massachusetts Staffing Association’s Annual Conference on April 3, 2018. David and Michael were joined by fellow panelists: Ally McCabe from Hollister Staffing and Karen Erickson of the Massachusetts Commission Against Discrimination. Their presentation was very well received and interactive, and this format encouraged all of those in attendance to express their views and share their experiences.

“The very important #MeToo movement has prompted employers and employees alike to re-examine their conduct, practices and procedures the workplace in order to improve working conditions for all” said partner David Sprong. “It was an honor and privilege to moderate such a great panel on such an important topic that is constantly in the news today and to give the attendees the benefit of our experience in the area,” said Michael Bartels.
