FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Becker Meisel attorneys David Sprong and Tim Szuhaj were featured speakers at the New Jersey Staffing Alliance Law Day III

Becker Meisel attorneys David Sprong and Tim Szuhaj were featured speakers at Law Day III, sponsored by the New Jersey Staffing Alliance (NJSA) on February 12, 2014. Law Day III was a full-day conference on legal and regulatory issues facing staffing firms and their owners, managers, recruiters and salespeople. At the conference, Mr. Szuhaj spoke about the transactional side of Mergers and Acquisitions including pricing, financial issues, due diligence and transaction documents. Mr. Sprong spoke about the acquisition of recruiting and sales talent, including due diligence in hiring and structuring proper contracts, and the impact of Mergers and Acquisitions on key employees. NJSA President Daniel J. Muhlfelder commented that "Becker Meisel's Law Day program was well received and offered a tremendous amount of valuable information. I would highly recommend this program to all staffing firms." David Sprong of Becker Meisel added that "this program was designed to specifically provide guidance to staffing companies that wish to increase value and engage in growth for a successful 2014 and beyond."
