SCALABILITY

Scaling Your Business: How To Build a Management Team and Implement Business Processes Facilitating Growth

Industry professionals from Trilogy Partners and Citrin Cooperman will discuss the keys to scaling a staffing firm. Topics will include: building the right management team and implementing the financial systems and financial discipline necessary to scale your business.

OUR SPEAKERS

Jack Wellman , Esq.
Alliance Partner
Trilogy Partners, LLC

Jack served as President/COO of Joule Inc., a staffing firm specializing in scientific, clinical, healthcare and equipment services. He grew the firm from $40 million in revenue to $125 million in revenue and then engineered a successful sale of the company.

Today, Jack is a Trilogy Alliance Partner and President of Wellman Insights. Jack brings his successful business experience to his entrepreneurial clients by supporting them through immediate-need issues and longer-term, but critical, strategic challenges.

His assistance can be provided as a consultant, member of an advisory committee, or interim executive.

Nick Florio,
Partner
Citrin Cooperman

Nick provides business consulting and financial advice to a variety of closely held private businesses in the staffing industry. He is an audit and accounting partner located in the firm's New York City office.

With over twenty years of experience in service businesses, Nick advises in the areas of valuation services, business consulting, and profitability analysis and helps clients with strategic corporate organization, as well as business and tax planning.

MODERATOR
