The Loving Gaze

Let's go straight to the protagonist in this story who at the end is called a man of great wealth. In that society this meant a landowner with extensive holdings. But this wealth had corrupted his whole personality and way of thinking. There was no deep down hunger because whenever he craved anything, he knew he could buy it or use his status or power to bend others to his will. The man boasts about all the commandments he has kept but Jesus is not satisfied with that minimum. Jesus is not a minimalist. Jesus tunes into the man's wavelength and says: 'There is one thing you lack.' That would have got the rich man's attention: the suggestion that he was missing something.

But to his shock he was to hear that what he was lacking was a big heart, a very big heart: 'Go, sell everything you own and give everything to the poor.' He had to get rid of his possessions and the security and status they bought because they were shrivelling up his heart. Jesus is saying to you and to me: 'Yes, you keep the commandments, more or less. At least you try. Okay. But that is really the bare minimum. The real question is: What do you have to do to expand your heart: to become big hearted enough to allow my heartbeat to become your heartbeat?' We each know what is holding us back from being one heart with Jesus Christ. For some, to be a true follower will require giving up all possessions, as with St Francis of Assisi. For others, a real hurting redistribution of wealth is required. Our taxes do a fair bit of that, and then our voluntary response to need and injustice on top of that. But at some stage in our lives, we have known, or know now, or will know what it is we are hanging on to: the one thing we cannot or will not give up. The one thing that is so much part of our personality we cannot imagine what it would be like to get up and get rid of it. There is only one factor that can give us, give you, give me, the courage and trust that is needed. Note in the Gospel story, and the only time in Mark, it says: 'Jesus looked steadily at him and loved him.' St John of the Cross, the Spanish mystic, says that: 'With God, to gaze at is to love', desiring to imprint grace on the one held in the loving gaze (The Spiritual Canticle, stanzas 32, 33). 'Jesus looked steadily at him and loved him.' Those eyes, that gaze, is directed at you, and at me personally, totally, directly, but most of all lovingly. It is not the glare of the critical eye but the look full of the possibility of who you could be as a follower of Jesus Christ. That, and only that, can give you the courage. So close your eyes and envisage our Lord Jesus Christ gazing steadily on you and say: 'Lord, I know there is something you want me to do to enlarge my heart.' 'Lord, I know there is something I must give up to enable this to happen.' 'Lord, give me courage and trust.' 'Lord, look steadily at me and love me.' 'Amen.'

Plenary Herald

Today, our parish begins preparation for the Plenary Council of the Australian church to be held in 2020. Our task over the next two months is to advise those preparing the agenda for the Plenary Council of what the people of our parish think God is asking of us in Australia at this time.

This raises the question: how does God communicate with God's people? In the first place, God speaks to us through God the redeemer, Jesus Christ, and God the sanctifier, the Holy Spirit. God spoke in all the scriptures but, particularly, in the gospels. In the second place, God speaks to us through the teachings, the life and the prayer of the People of God. Finally, God speaks to us through the realities of our lives and the lives of all the People of God.

Being Christian means, therefore, being catholic; it means being in tune with the whole People of God; it means making sense, in the context of the world in which we live, of what Jesus preached to the people in his world; it means listening to the Holy Spirit who lives in all of us.

It is imperative, therefore, that each person contributes her or his response to that question: what is God saying to us to enliven our faith in Australia at this time?

Save the Date: Feast Day of Christ the King on Sunday 25th November. Special events to be organised during the day. Details to follow.

Parishioners who would like to be part of the group that presents the preparation talks are asked to contact the Parish office 4341 1073.

Courtesy Bus Service: URGENT

The Courtesy Bus Service has been serving our parishioners for about ten years. Over that time many people have given their time to drive the bus. Age & impairment of one sort or another have taken their toll and we no longer have sufficient drivers to continue to provide the service at the same level. Women and men who have a licence to drive a car are invited to share in this invaluable ministry. Please call Vince (0418 485 417) or Bernard (0422 292 759) for more information.

The Order Of Mass cards: Copies now available in the gathering area. Please ensure these remain in the church.

St Vincent de Paul Society on the Peninsula assist and give a hand up to people in need. We have two Conferences with volunteers sharing the visiting or office work. We always welcome new Volunteers to our Conference. Please ring Ken 0400 335 351 or Joan 0422 272 339.

"Mary Mac's Place" Hospitality: volunteers provide nutritious, freshly cooked meals and information and referrals to appropriate community services. Open Monday to Friday, 11am-1pm, at the Ethel Cox Parish Centre. For more information, please contact 4341 0584.

Catholic Mission Sunday: Next weekend our parish will be holding the annual Catholic Mission Church Appeal. This year we are invited to help to heal a nation through education in Myanmar. Led by Cardinal Charles Maung Bo, the Church is developing an alternative system of quality education, with comprehensive teacher training programs and the establishment of new schools, especially in remote areas. It has been called an "education revolution", and the potential impact is far-reaching. Please come prepared next weekend and give generously to this important work. You will have an opportunity to become an integral part of this inspiring work by joining as a monthly giving partner. This regular contribution will directly support education in Myanmar. Envelopes in the church this weekend.

Cash Housie every Saturday night at Peninsula Community Centre, Cnr Ocean Beach Rd & McMasters Rd, Woy Woy. Games start at 7.30pm and finish 10.20pm, cash prizes. Ticket sales from 6pm. Proceeds benefit Parish. Enquiries Rob: 0427 990 818.

St John the Baptist Youth Group: Held once a fortnight during school terms for high school students (Years 7-12), in the Leo Mahon Room. For more information, contact Matthew French on 0411 792 587.
