Restoration and Resurrection

Mark's unique style of writing sometimes highlights how two seemingly different situations are actually connected. This is called inclusio – or a “sandwich” of two stories. Notice how Jesus begins his journey to help a twelve-year-old girl and is interrupted by a woman with a twelve-year-old affliction. What follows is salvation – restoration and resurrection!

- Jairus must have been a well-known and well-respected man in the community. What do you think it meant for him to implore Jesus and believe he can heal her? (vs.21-23)
- Who is the woman with the hemorrhage issue? What had she tried to do to get well? (v.26)
- Some scholars suggest that this condition had kept her from marriage and bearing children.<sup>1</sup> In addition, the law (Lev 15:25-28) would render her socially and morally unclean. Imagine what all of this meant to the woman. What might she have been feeling? (vs.27-28)
- Why does Jesus call her “daughter”? How did her faith make her well?<sup>2</sup> (v.34)
- Upon hearing his daughter had died, Jairus must have been feeling many things. Why does Jesus exhort him to not be afraid, rather than sad? What is Jesus asking him to believe? (v.36)
- Only a small group of witnesses were with Jesus. What would it mean to the community to see and believe that a child could be raised from the dead? (v.37-40)
- What do you make of Jesus's posture of tenderness to both of these people? How might this help you get to know him more?
- Apply it. Is there an area of your life that you would ask Jesus to “make whole”?

<sup>21</sup>When Jesus had crossed over again in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around Him; and so He stayed by the seashore. <sup>22</sup>One of the synagogue officials named Jairus *came up, and on seeing Him, *fell at His feet <sup>23</sup>and *implored Him earnestly, saying, “My little daughter is at the point of death; please come and lay Your hands on her, so that she will get well and live.” <sup>24</sup>And He went off with him; and a large crowd was following Him and pressing in on Him.

<sup>25</sup>A woman who had had a hemorrhage for twelve years, <sup>26</sup>and had endured much at the hands of many physicians, and had spent all that she had and was not helped at all, but rather had grown worse— <sup>27</sup>after hearing about Jesus, she came up in the crowd behind Him and touched His cloak. <sup>28</sup>For she thought, “If I just touch His garments, I will get well.” <sup>29</sup>Immediately the flow of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction. <sup>30</sup>Immediately Jesus, perceiving in Himself that the power proceeding from Him had gone forth, turned around in the crowd and said, “Who touched My garments?” <sup>31</sup>And His disciples said to Him, “You see the crowd pressing in on You, and You say, ‘Who touched Me?’” <sup>32</sup>And He looked around to see the woman who had done this. <sup>33</sup>But the woman fearing and trembling, aware of what had happened to her, came and fell down before Him and told Him the whole truth. <sup>34</sup>And He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace and be healed of your affliction.”

<sup>35</sup>While He was still speaking, they *came from the house of the synagogue official, saying, “Your daughter has died; why trouble the Teacher anymore?” <sup>36</sup>But Jesus, overhearing what was being spoken, *said to the synagogue official, “Do not be afraid any longer, only believe.” <sup>37</sup>And He allowed no one to accompany Him, except Peter and James and John the brother of James. <sup>38</sup>They *came to the house of the synagogue official; and He *saw a commotion, and people loudly weeping and wailing. <sup>39</sup>And entering in, He *said to them, “Why make a commotion and weep? The child has not died, but is asleep.” <sup>40</sup>They began laughing at Him. But putting them all out, He *took along the child's father and mother and His own companions, and *entered the room where the child was. <sup>41</sup>Taking the child by the hand, He *said to her, “Talitha kum!” (which translated means, “Little girl, I say to you, get up!”). <sup>42</sup>Immediately the girl got up and began to walk, for she was twelve years old. And immediately they were completely astounded.

<sup>2</sup> The Greek word here for “made well” is sozo – it means “to save or to make whole”
