QUARTERLY MIND BODY & SPIRIT NEWSLETTER

NEW WINTER HOURS BEGINNING JANUARY 2017 : M-F 11AM-7PM, SAT 10AM-5PM

Hi All!

Winter and all of it's wonderful changes is upon us now! For some, Winter is a wonderland and for others it is the dreaded season before the dawn of Spring. We try to bring you products that will help bring you energy and positive feelings whatever the Season.

For us, the coming year is a promise of new and exciting things. With your continual input, we try to bring in new items all the time. We are continuously searching for new gifts that uplift and renew smiles and attitudes.

The beautiful Lemurian Seed crystals, I wrote about in the last newsletter, are now available in the shop. We also just put out three huge, gorgeous Elestial Crystals! They are a rare find and we are so pleased to be able to offer them here for your enjoyment or for purchase. I believe they all have water inside of them, but one has a clearly visible large bubble at the very top of the crystal. I love them! They are truly OUTSTANDING! You better hurry before I take them all home!

We couldn't wait until Spring to expand our fairy garden. It never ceases to make us smile and lift our spirits! We trust it will lift yours as well! Spring is just around the corner! (You may say I'm a dreamer.....but I'm not the only one.)

Recent additions: new oracle cards from Native American Wisdom , Angel cards, and some fun new banners as well as some wood art to brighten your space. We located some encouraging new artwork and we brought in a few wonderful new natural stones and crystals as well as a handful of enhanced crystals, (they have good energy too!) As always, our candles smell awesome and we just added some new ones to try out. And NEW SINGING BOWLS are on the way!!!

We are working on getting some grab bags out after the new year begins as we know they are well liked! Although our space only allows us to keep a small selection of books and music on hand, we are always getting new selections to offer, so always check back to see what you might have missed. Please don't forget about the wonderful things hanging above and around you. Make sure and visit the case of crystals and stones in our loft. They are BEAUTIFUL and worth the climb.

As 2016 draws to a close, Merri and I wish you all the Happiness and Positive Energy which a New Year always has the opportunity to bring. We at MBS Thank You as we are now in our 15th year of helping you reach your potentials and beyond.

Until next time!

Namaste, Joan and Merri

A Community is Gathering

The beginning of a new year is upon us or has just begun depending on when you first found this. There are many who feel it is the perfect time to begin anew. New Year resolutions are a tradition of sorts; unfortunately, several of our intentions fall to the wayside as the busyness of life takes away the ambition we had for change when we toasted to the New Year. There are countless articles advising us how to keep our stamina up, especially for those whose resolution was to get more fit in the new year. Some profess there is no better way to recreate ourselves than to exercise ourselves into a higher metabolism and train for that next marathon. While this is an admirable resolve there are other aspects of ourselves that we often don't find articles about. Our Spiritual selves need to be recreated as well.

When we are feeling sluggish and our energy is waning, when walking to the fridge for a snack, we feel the motivation to get more active and there are plenty of avenues "out there" for us to do so. But when it comes to renewing our spiritual energy where do we go and what do we do then? The answer for some may be to ask their minister or spiritual director of whatever individual religion they find community in. This is a wonderful beginning. But what if you would like to share that truth with others and learn from others? For some, spirituality is made whole and healthy by engaging with and sharing our stories with those who wish to share theirs as well. We can join a gym to get our body fit, go to a library to expand our knowledge and energize our brain power, and engage in a book club to find friends who like the same genre we do. But where do we find encouragement for the growth and health of our spirituality outside of church?

What if you don't regularly attend a religious community? What does one do then? From what I have seen over the years you go it alone. And for the most part I have seen good things springing from the people who delve endlessly into their books and pour over as much as they can trying to gain access to who they are in a healthy, spiritual sense. The topic of religion vs spirituality has been discussed here before and so I believe we are mostly on the same page when I say that I am not wishing to dismiss anyone's religious affiliation. Those are important to people wishing to fill that desire within us all, to have support from a community of like minds. To have somewhere "where everybody knows your name" so to speak. But for those who have not found a community yet, for those who would like to expand that community outside of their religion, or for those wishing to enhance or share their experiences, where do we go?

It is difficult finding places for spiritual community, outside of a religious organization. Some find their friends or even dates at their local church bazaar. Others reach out to the internet for making new friends, etc. And some of us get a bit too attached to our good friend, Netflix. But there is nothing quite like a community of like minds to raise our spirits and help restore our spiritual natures.

There have been several who have come to the shop looking for community. And within the walls here at MBS it is felt. But the community is dispersed and individuals come in one at a time, sometimes just to shop for a special item to uplift a sick friend, someone having a birthday or maybe uplift themselves. Sometimes it helps to just sit quietly in our upstairs loft and meditate or just breathe. It is felt and it provides one with a sense of community that fulfills and strengthens enough, but leave others wanting more.

I would like to offer more, beginning at the start of the new year. I am proposing we begin again here at MBS to build community that can meet up and share with each other. We held these gatherings the first few years we were open but life got busy and other things took precedent. In the spirit of creating relationships and community, outside of the shop itself, to provide growth and health to our spiritual selves, I will be opening the studio for such gatherings once again. (Please see the calendar for dates, times, etc.)

We will begin meeting once a week on the 2nd, 3rd and 4th weeks, which I am envisioning becoming monthly as time goes on. It won't matter when you can make it, there is no sign up for attendance and no worries about whether you miss one. There will be a small fee which will be a free will donation to pay for heat, electricity, rent, cleaning, etc. from those who can give. No one will be left out because of ability to pay or not. I won't put any stipulations about children to begin, as it is difficult for some to find adequate childcare so they may attend, but if anyone becomes too much of a distraction, (child or adult), we will revisit the parameters.

What do you need to bring? An open heart and an open mind. That's it! Anything else is up to you! Several people have inquired about this and it felt like it was a good fit for me as well so I look forward to seeing you there. The first few times will be laying the groundwork but plenty of time for fun and sharing and community! All are welcome without regard to affiliation. Remember, it will be your group. I will be there to make sure to provide the logistics, the place, and guidance (for now) to create a safe space.

The year 2017 can be what we make it! Want resolutions? Exercise, eat healthy, find balance between work and play and then come to MBS to make some friends and meet the community you all feel when you step through the doors of the shop. We'll be waiting for you!

Spirit animals that have been traveling with you will be asked, in a short meditation, to show themselves. Then Joan will tell the group what she "sees" around each person and perhaps the room. This is a chance to have spirit animal readings in a space that allows exploration into how the energy of these animals effect us and those around us. How do we interact differently when our animals within come out? A wonderfully casual and fun way to bring to light our spirit animals and what they mean for us. As always, Joan's gatherings are lighthearted, so bring your playful side and ability to be open! (Not intended for children)
