First Baptist Church • Monroe • North Carolina

Issue 26 - June 30, 2021

To our First Baptist Monroe Family:
 We cannot possibly begin to convey our gratitude for the love and appreciation we have felt from so many of you these last few weeks. We are thankful for the efforts of those who put on a wonderful going away celebration, and for those who attended. It was special to be able to gather in that way in more ways than one. Also, for all of the notes, gifts, hugs, and yes a few tears, we are thankful for all you have done to send us off well. We trust that you will keep us, and the people of FBC Lumberton in your prayers, just as we will continue to keep all of you in our hearts and prayers. Until we meet again, we love you all.

— Josh, Lindsay, Quinn and Carter

Nurturing Faith Journal ...

Current subscribers to Nurturing Faith will be receiving a bill within the next few weeks to renew their annual subscription for the coming church year. If you would like to cancel your subscription or subscribe to Nurturing Faith, please call them directly at 615-627-7763. If you have questions, please contact Marsha Sexton in the church office

WMU CORNER

The ladies of WMU (Lottie Moon/Poovey & Helen Fling Groups) are ready to get back into regular activities.

As a way of kicking off a new beginning, the ladies and a few not in the group raised money to make a donation to the Council on Aging in honor of their oldest member, Audrey Bales. She is a longtime and esteemed WMU member and all have learned from serving with her. Enough money was raised to donate 2 Memory Bricks with her name engraved on them, which will be placed on the Memory Walk at the Respite House next to Council on Aging.

This is just the first of many projects planned. If you would like to get involved in God's service and study with like-minded Christian women, please contact Ann Handy. WMU would love to have you join them!
