“Loving God, Loving Within, Loving Beyond”

As part of “Loving Beyond”, the Board of Missions needs your help this coming Sunday following the Church-wide Fellowship Luncheon.
They will be packing small food bags that will be distributed to local students who attend several after school facilities in our community.
The food bags will be distributed to the students October 18-22. Join them in the Family Life Center following lunch (around 1:00 p.m.).

Join us for an in-depth study of The Psalms

led by Bob Duncan on the following Wednesday evenings from 6:00-7:00 p.m.

Dear Partner in Ministry:

Thank you for your faithfulness to Union County Crisis Assistance Ministry, a commitment that is clear through your financial support. We appreciate your support for our mission, which provides the tangible means to answer Christ’s command to hear the cries of the poor and to bring healing. Your contributions helped with the following needs in 2020:

- Prevention of 2,345 children being added to Union County’s growing homeless population, with a total assistance of $444,049.84.
- Providing support to 10,631 households through our crisis line connecting them to valuable resources in the community.
- Providing of 933 bags of groceries through our Emergency Food Pantry (supported by churches) to working families struggling to keep food on their table.

Thank you for your continued blessings on those we serve.

— Gloria Barrino, Executive Director

Polar Express for Kids

Brittany Austin, Children’s Ministry Coordinator, is planning on showing the movie Polar Express for children on Friday, December 10 in the Family Life Center and needs 5 to 6 volunteers to help.
She plans on meeting 1 or 2 times with the volunteers. If you can help, please contact Brittany as soon as possible.
