Monday, July 13, 2020 12:00 – 1:00 PM
Phone Conference Dial-in number (US): (425) 436-6318
Access code: 480636#

- Call to Order: 12:05 pm
- Roll Call: 8 are present for the telephone meeting; Joel L. Sheppard, Emily Weatherly, Joe Reuss, Wayne Adickes, Rev. Taylor, Candy Henderson, and museum manager Amber Fitts Jones. Rafael Acosta joined shortly after meeting started.
- Approval of the minutes – for June 2020- Wayne motioned to approve; Joe R. seconded. All in favor.
- Budget meeting: Amber reported that budget meeting will be held with City leaders tomorrow/July 14th at 1:30. Reported on items that will be requested as well as items on hold. Wayne inquired about converting to LED lights. Per Amber price of LED lights would be cheaper than the ballast replacement which is hard to find now and the cost of regular bulbs. Plan is as the lights go out will replace with LED. So, will be ongoing project. Fiscal year starts Oct. 1.
- Cuero Heritage Museum update/Gobbler exhibit update – Amber reported since it was paid for by donation, they will continue. Liz continues to update. Not much more to be printed at this point. Liz will return to do painting next week
- Current exhibit – Wayne’s Paperweight exhibit. Wayne gave background on the development of his collection over time. Amber offered to open up the museum to view. Museum is currently closed due to COVID-19 increase in area. No date to reopen
- Cuero 1960 exhibit for the Fall – Amber reported on developing a documentary. Three big events in 1960 – TurkeyTrot, election and two football teams in 1960. Wayne shared we could list businesses that were open at that time. Some of the numbers were quite large in the 1960s. Goal is to have Amber’s two part-timers help with the documentary/exhibit.
- Pharmacy/Medical Museum - Amber reported working on upstairs progress at Pharmacy Museum.
- Old Business – None.
- New Business – None.
- Next Meeting – August 10th at noon via telephone conference is anticipated date, time and format.
- Rev. Taylor motioned to adjourn, Candy seconded and meeting adjourned at 12:27 p.m.
