

If you have to carry a card in your pocket (or pass on your phone) proving you injected a drug into your body to gain access to grocery stores, receive medical care or to freely move about society then you no longer live in a free country and you are no longer sovereign over your own body. - And that should concern everyone - regardless of political party or medical choices.

Putting on a mask to walk ten feet through a restaurant and then taking it off when I get to my table is one of the dumbest things I've done in my entire life and I've done a lot of dumb things

"Sure I wave the American flag. Do you know a better flag to wave? Sure I love my country with all her faults. I'm not ashamed of that, never have been, never will be." -John Wayne

Allies: We defeated the Nazis!
The Nazis:

A lie doesn't become truth,
wrong doesn't become right,
and evil doesn't become good,
just because it's accepted by a majority.

-Booker T. Washington

A young businessman in 1916 decided to construct a bank in Vernal, Utah, but the bricks he selected were about 120 miles away. The freight charges were about four times more expensive than what the bricks cost. He learned that parcel post was the most inexpensive way to ship the bricks, so he packaged 80,000 bricks into boxes and mailed them.
