HISTORY HUSTLE

You know Henry Ford, but perhaps not Chung Ju-yung, founder of Hyundai. Tired of poverty, he tried multiple times to leave North Korea, once buying a ticket to Seoul by selling one of his father's cows. With the success of Hyundai, he became the richest man in South Korea. With his nonprofit foundation he's established 9 hospitals serving South Korea's neediest, and in 1998, he herded 1,001 cows to North Korea as repayment 1,000x over for the cow he stole.

Why do people think it's okay to call babies he or she? They can't speak yet so they can't say their preferred gender.

bae @ [REDACTED]

Please refer to them as babyself or toddlerself until they can say their pronoun preference otherwise you're ableist and transphobic.
