Charlie Chaplin openly pleaded against fascism, war, capitalism, and mass destruction weapons in his movies. He was slandered by the FBI & banned from the USA in 1952. In 1972, he was offered an Honorary Academy Award; he hesitantly returned to the US for the first time in 20 years, & at the Academy Awards gala, he received a 12-minute standing ovation, the longest in the Academy's history.
