A man with a beard and suspenders is drinking from a fire hose. He is standing next to a pickup truck. The background shows a grassy area and some trees.

*Let me put this way.
I survived Clackers, Metal Lawn-Darts, Riding in the back of a Pick-Up, Drinking from a Hose and at one time being married to Satan's Sister. No. I'm good.*

Whenever I think of the 80's, my first thought is of a boom box.

Riker's Beard

Well that's just a stereo type!

Barbara Walters interviewed Dolly Parton in 1977. The interview got personal, but Dolly remained poised.

Walters:* “You don’t have to look like this. You’re very beautiful. You don’t have to wear the blond wig. You don’t have to wear the extreme clothes, right?”

Parton:* “No, this is definitely a choice. I don’t like to be like everybody else...that’s the easiest thing in the world to do...Show business is a money-making joke...”

Walters:* “But do you ever feel that you’re a joke? That people make fun of you?”

Parton:* “Oh, I know they make fun of me, but actually all these years, the people have thought the joke was on me, but it’s actually been on the public...”

NOW YOU KNOW.

"The psychology of masks"

"During operative 'conditioning training soldiers', we have learned that if an enemy combatant looks different than the soldier, it's 40% easier for the soldier to not feel things like empathy, compassion, fear, ect. If the combatant has a face covering, it is 60% on average more difficult to connect with a person. This has nothing to do with killing training, it's just the way human brains work. So over a long period of time, ie: 1-5 years, masks will alter our ways of viewing each other in a biological sense.

My son's generation, if we all continue to use face coverings, will be 50% more prone to violence, 50% less empathetic, and it will dehumanize their peers by 50%"

LTC David Grossman in his book "On Killing"

10 Stages of Genocide

1. Classification: People are divided into "us and them".
2. Symbolization: People are forced to identify themselves.
3. Discrimination: People begin to face systematic discrimination.
4. Dehumanization: People equated with animals, vermin, or diseases.
5. Organization: The government creates special groups (police/military) to enforce the policies.
6. Polarization: The government broadcasts propaganda to turn the populace against the group.
7. Preparation: Official action to remove/relocate people begins.
8. Persecution: Beginning of murders, theft of property, trial massacres.
9. Extermination: Wholesale elimination of the group. It is "extermination" and not murder because the people are not considered human.
10. Denial: The government denies that it has committed any crime.

The second officer of the Titanic refused to get off the ship until he had helped the others and got trapped underwater. A boiler exploded that set him free. He then served in World War II and saved the lives of 127 men at Dunkirk.
