Nationwide manhunt for those who stormed the US Capitol. That's a good thing. My question is this, why is there no nationwide manhunt for the people who burned and looted Seattle and Portland for over 150 days. Why no manhunt for the people who burn down federal buildings? Why no manhunt for people who burned churches? Why no manhunt for people who threw Molotov cocktails, chemical irritants and explosives at police officers? Why no manhunt for people who topple statues? Why no manhunt for people who looted and burned private businesses? Why no manhunt for people who brutally attacked elderly people merely for trying to defend their livelihood?

THERE'S A BABY GIRL IN A SMALL TOWN IN

All my friends who support them bragging about what a great job he's been doing?
